Let's Make This Summer One to Remember

"I'm bored!"

It's only a few days into summer vacation and already that dreaded complaint is filling the halls of your home. Summertime is supposed to be fun, so why are families already dreaming of the first day of school? There are only so many summer vacations before the kids move out or go off to college. This week, we're looking at how to make summer vacation more memorable with a summer bucket list.

How To Make A Family Summer Bucket List

Making a summer bucket list boils down to compiling a list of things your family would enjoy doing together. But when you sit down to create that list, it can feel like there's a lot of pressure to fill every second with summer fun. Don't overthink it! These tips can point you in the right direction to creating your list. With the whole family involved, you'll have something great to look forward to in no time.

Family-Friendly Summer Bucket List Ideas!

The best family summer bucket list will be filled with ideas that you and your family come up with yourselves. This will capture the things that are most important to your family. That said, it doesn't hurt to check out other suggestions. Don't worry about making your list "too long." Save everything you don't cross off and use it to jump-start your list next year.

Create A Real Summer Bucket List

All you really need to do to create a great summer bucket list is jot down a few ideas for family activities. Of course, if you're feeling more creative, you can turn the list itself into the very first family activity. Maryalice M. Leister of My Kids' Adventures has a great guide for creating a unique family summer bucket list with a real bucket!

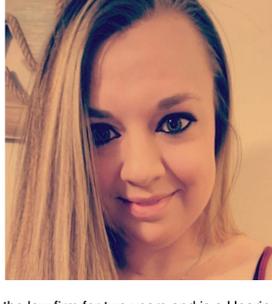

Just For Fun: Best Family Summer Fails

Even with the best-laid plans, summer vacation isn't always picture perfect. But as these videos prove, even when things go awry, you'll probably have some hilarious summer memories.

Happy summer!

Employee of the Month

Congratulations to our June Employee of the Month, Michelle Bailey!

Michelle has been with the law firm for two years and is a Hearing Case Manager. She helps clients get prepared for their disability hearing. Her favorite thing about working at FSTN is being able to help people and knowing you are a part of making a difference in someone's life.

Here are some fun questions Michelle answered:

1. If you could pick a superpower, what would you choose? To be able to understand the things that are going on in my 13yr old autistic son's head that he isn't able to tell me about.
2. Do you have any strange phobias? Not strange, just really do not like bugs or reptiles of any sort lol.
3. If you were stuck on an island what three things would you bring? Coffee, Leggings, my meds (getting old sucks lol).
4. Do you have a favorite quote? "Give but don't allow yourself to be used. Love but don't allow your heart to be abused. Trust but don't be naive. Listen but don't lose your own voice."
5. What tv show/movie are you ashamed to admit you love? The Bachelorette.

People who voted for Michelle said this, "Michelle works extremely hard and is very dedicated to her clients."

We are so lucky to have Michelle on our team!

Celebrating 40 Years

Julie Davis Celebrates 40 Years with FSTN Law Firm

Fleschner, Stark, Tanoos & Newlin has so many wonderful employees that we love and value. We couldn't do what we do for our clients if it weren't for each and every one of our employees. This month, we celebrate one employee in particular, Julie Davis. Julie started working with partner Dennis Stark on June 4, 1979. She later joined Fleschner Law Firm with Dennis and has been part of the FSTN family ever since.

This month, we celebrate Julie's 40 years of service and all that she contributes to the law firm. When we think of an exemplary employee, we can't help but think of Julie. She has received several awards for Employee of the Month over the years and continues to be a most valued employee. She has contributed more than just her time; she has contributed her heart to the law firm.

Teresa Speros stated, "Julie is a friend to all and always takes time to listen to anyone that stops by her desk, and yet she is meticulous about her work! She keeps track of Dennis and is always cheerful!"

We are eternally grateful for her service and dedication. Thank you, Julie, for everything you have done for the firm. We are so lucky to have you, and we are a better law firm because of you.

Recipe of the Month
Watermelon Cucumber Skewers

Skewers are a Fourth of July favorite, but these are not your classic kebabs. They're a fresh, light, and fun way to start a barbecue. Oh, and they don't require any actual cooking.

Ingredients

- 1 medium-sized watermelon, cubed
- 2 cucumbers, cut into 1/4 inch rounds
- 1 block of feta cheese, cubed
- 1 bunch fresh mint leaves
- Salt, to taste

Equipment

- 1 packet of bamboo skewers

Directions

1. Assemble skewers by placing one watermelon cube, one cucumber round, one feta cube, and one mint leaf on skewer in that order. Repeat until skewer is full.
2. Lightly season with salt and chill in fridge until right before serving.

Real Client Reviews

"Very thankful for each person involved in my case. The representation and support from my attorney was top-notch. Absolutely the best. They took care of all my concerns and answered all of my questions. Stop by and ask what they can do for you. You won't be disappointed! They stand beside you to get you the help you need."

-Sheri H.

"They won my case in less than a year. I met with a representative of the firm and she filled out my appeal. They did a great job in winning my case. I thank you so much for what you did. My health was and still is fading. They saved me. Again, thank you."

-Ron S.
